Where: Bob's Office

Bob is looking to have a quick discussion on the non-concurrence. Some of his questions/requests are:

- Why not issue non-concurrence, rather than not respond at all?
- Does non-concurrence/non-response trigger something?
- Similarly, what happens next?
- Talking points explaining why this does not fall to the level of Tier 3/routine?

Please let me know if you have any questions.
